

Satelite radio is far superior to other radio stations as there is not interference. When you do not live in a metropolitan area the reception is terrible. Please allow the satellite radio stations to have all rights that other stations do.